District Election Questions

District Election Questions

The District will conduct an all-mail election for the Board of Directors on August 25, 2015. There have been inquiries about how this election will be conducted. In response to those inquiries, this notice is provided to inform landowners that this election, like prior District elections, will be conducted with secret ballots and that there is no cumulative voting. The District encourages all landowners to vote, and if you have questions about the requirements to complete your ballot, please contact District staff.
